Sir,

(I) The provisions of the Stage Carriage Act, 1861 (XVI of 1861) were enforced on the roads from Mangalore to Coondapoor, Mangalore to Puttur and Mangalore to Karkal of this District in G.O. No. 1440, Judicial, dated 23rd September 1910. Though, since then, motor buses have replaced the stage carriages to a great extent, there is still a considerable amount of traffic on these roads by these vehicles. I consider it necessary that this traffic should be regulated by the provisions of the new Act. I therefore request that Government may be pleased to extend the provisions of the Madras ---- Hackney carriage Act (Act V of 1911) as amended by --- Act III of 1924 to the roads mentioned above. A ---- draft notice under 1 (3) (1) of the Act is enclosed.

Your obedient servant,

For Dt.Magistrate.

Madras.

Sir,

On a reconsideration of the question, I now propose to withdraw my recommendations made in my letter Ref.No.10866-C-24, dated 22nd December 1924 to extend the Act to certain roads in this District. I have since ascertained that most of the carriages -- that ply on them are private and the others have -- nearly all been already registered in the Municipality. As already pointed out by me, carriage traffic has been very largely replaced by bus traffic and the control of carriages is scarcely necessary.

There is no need therefore to extend the provisions of the Madras Hackney Carriage Act, 1911 to those --- parts in the District where the provisions of the -- Stage Carriages Act, 1861, were in force.

Your obedient servant,

For Dt. Magistrate.
